

The Whiteface Visitors Bureau invites you to participate in the 18^h annual “Festival of the Colors,” scheduled for Saturday, September 10, 2022 from 10:00am-5:00pm. The event will be open to the public and free of charge for visitors.

Celebrate the coming of the Fall Season. The festival will feature arts and crafts by regional artisans, fresh baked goods, produce, informational booths and more. Other activities include children’s entertainment, pumpkin decorating, and live Music. This year Wilmington will be celebrating our 200th Birthday and will have a special Bicentennial tent with displays of “Through the Years”.

The festival will take place in the center of the Wilmington Business District at Preston Festival Field on Springfield Rd. Space is limited and available on a first-come/first-served basis.

Each artist or vendor will be responsible for their own set-up and any tent or shelter required. You will have a 10x10 space. Your display should be in keeping with the theme of the event, such as handmade items, artwork, photography, furniture, baked goods, and locally grown produce. We also encourage you to decorate your booth with fall decorations. We will have prizes for best looking booths!

Please fill out the enclosed form and return it before August 30th. (via mail or email). You may also call me with your registration and do credit card payment over the phone. (Mon-Fri. 9-3). If you have any questions or would like additional information, please do not hesitate to contact the Visitors Bureau at (518) 946-2255.
