

July 13 in A MEMORIAL FIELD CONVERSATION TWO OF NINE ABOUT EQUITY AND JUSTICE

3PM Thursdays in July and August

at the JOHN BROWN FARM State Historic Site, Lake Placid

“NAVIGATING SYSTEMIC CHANGE”

FACILITATED BY

Pete Nelson

Pete Nelson is co-founder of the Adirondack Diversity Initiative and leads ADI's community policing program. Pete has been involved in diversity issues as an activist and teacher since the 1970's, including social justice programs in his hometown of Cleveland, tenants' rights and inner-city housing in Chicago and equity in education in Madison, Wisconsin. Pete is a math teacher and member of the Diversity Task Force at North Country Community College. Co-founder and Board Chair of Adirondack Wilderness Advocates, he is dedicated to protecting and preserving the wild character of the Adirondack Park.

2pm Pre-Conversation Site Visit with artist Ren Davidson Seward (recommended if you haven't visited the John Brown Farm before)

Meet in the exhibit, “Dreaming of Timbuctoo,” located in the upper level, around back, of the John Brown barn, to become oriented to the voting rights experiment that is central to the story.

3pm Conversation Begins (no more than 90 minutes)

Meet in the traffic circle 15 minutes prior and please bring a lawn chair. Some chairs will be provided.

FREE and OPEN TO ALL

A Creatives Rebuild New York project in collaboration with

John Brown LIVES!
a freedom education and human rights project

For up-to-the-minute listing of Thursday conversations in July and August:
johnbrownlives.org or visit lakeflowerlanding on FB