JULY 6 - ADIRONDACK HEALTH'S VIVALDI
TALE OF THE RED PRIEST

Journey back to 17th Century Venice, the artistic hub of Europe to hear a first-hand account of the life and times of composer Antonio Vivaldi. His story is mysterious, his motivations complex and deeply personal. Historian Raya Lee returns for this concert biopic written for the Lake Placid Sinfonietta.

JULY 13 - BEYOND THE SCREEN

This concert explores the dynamic connection between music and the silver screen. Featuring works written for movies, works written for the concert hall by film composers, and works intended for the hall that were later used on the screen. Concertmaster Daniel Szasz is featured in "The Black Swan" from Swan Lake.

JULY 20 - COMING HOME

Adirondack Harper Martha Gallagher will premiere her new work for harp and orchestra "The Orphan's Odyssey" and perform some of her most requested pieces. The first half of the program is part of the Lake Placid Sinfonietta's Centennial recording project and will include Prokofiev's "Classical Symphony" and Bartok's "Rumanian Folk Dances" both composed in 1917.

JULY 27 - THE FORK IN THE ROAD

When faced with success, high expectations, or a changing world, composers often hit a proverbial "fork in the road" where they must decide if their music will remain as it is or undergo an overhaul to reflect the times. This concert's highlight will be Maurice Ravel's Jazz inspired "Piano Concerto" performed by Tchaikovsky Competition medalist Sara Davis Buechner.

AUGUST 3 - THE DEVIL IN THE DETAILS

Isolated in Switzerland during World War I with only a few musicians, a writer and little hope, Stravinsky composed one of the most iconic chamber works of the 20th Century: "The Soldier's Tale". It will be performed in its full version in collaboration with Pendragon Theatre. This sell-your-soul-to-the-Devil tale will be coupled with other works that take a trip to the dark side of humanity!

AUGUST 10 - DEDICATIONS

Many great works of music include dedications to patrons and royalty and, in the case of Chopin's "Piano Concerto No. 2", a dedication to two different lovers! Concert pianist Navah Perlman returns as soloist for this performance that explores the impact of dedication on the music and the composers' lives.

Ron Spigelman
Music Director

"I invite everyone to join us this summer on our journey to our Centennial in 2017! This summer we're bringing you music that can be best described as dreamy. Music in the moment can transport you to far-away destinations, can allow you to relive the most precious of memories, and can make you feel every emotion from the greatest happiness to the deepest sorrow. When you are captivated by music, you can feel as free as if you were in a living dream. Please come to a concert for an amazing ride!"

Music Director Ron Spigelman is a native of Australia, an honors graduate of the Royal Academy of Music, London and has been the Music Director of the Springfield MO Symphony, Principal Pops Conductor of the Syracuse and Fort Worth symphonies, and Associate Conductor of the Buffalo Philharmonic.
