

Lake Placid Complimentary Services

One Point of Contact: With one phone call you can access all that Lake Placid has to offer including accommodations, meeting space, food and beverage, and off-site activities.

Attendance Building: Printed and electronic destination brochures are available to promote Lake Placid to your delegates.

Reservations: Our central reservation system provides one channel for reserving accommodations at your chosen hotels.

Media Assistance: Send us your conference press releases and we are happy to distribute to our media database and help support your event.

Welcome Posters: We will distribute welcome posters to our shops and restaurants along Main Street.

Olympic Marquee: A giant message on our Olympic marquee will welcome your group to our beautiful village.

Welcome Packets: We will provide welcome packets for all of your attendees. They include an area map and welcome letter.

Photo Gallery: We offer a comprehensive photo gallery for use in the promotional materials for your conference.

Group and Event Destination Guide/Services List: We can provide assistance in finding speakers, tours, gift bag items, transportation, photographers, florists, audio/visual needs, and more. Think of us as your Lake Placid concierge!

Visitor Center: Located within the Conference Center Lake Placid, group attendees will find a friendly staff to answer questions and provide recommendations for area activities.

Dine Around Programs: Sample some of Lake Placid's delectable restaurants! Simply select from the dozens of restaurants and the bureau will assist you with building your Dine Around Program package and confirming reservations for your group.

Designated Conference Shuttle: Our complimentary transportation will bring your attendees to and from the Conference Center and your participating hotels.

Team Building, Local Knowledge, and Off-site Venues: We can be your liaison to Lake Placid's local assets and talent, and help you build content for your program. Find a presenter to inspire and educate, or organize a scavenger hunt. With many unique and exceptional special event venues, we can help you find the perfect setting for your group's event.

Master Bill: We will combine all of your individual hotel invoices into one master bill for convenient processing.

Volunteers: We can assist in staffing hospitality and registration tables, supporting events, handing out brochures, and greeting visitor and convention delegates.

Voluntourism: We can help coordinate events and activities with our local community service organizations and provide an opportunity for your attendees to give back to the community.
